Version 1.3 dated 1 February 2023

About this document

This Financial Services Guide (“FSG”) is an important document. You should read it carefully and make sure you understand it.

This FSG is provided to you by Walker Capital Private Wealth Pty Limited ACN 161 363 097 (“Walker Capital”, we, our, us), the holder of an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL No. 436859), to inform you of the financial services we are able to provide and to assist you in deciding whether to use any of the services offered in this FSG. This FSG replaces all prior versions.

This FSG explains:

- Other disclosure documents we may give you
- Who we are and how you can contact us
- Financial services and products we are authorised to provide
- What our responsibilities are and what type of advice we give
- How you can instruct us
- How we get paid (remuneration, commissions, benefits)
- How we deal with customer complaints and where you can go for further help
- Our compensation arrangements
- Potential conflicts of interest
- Records we keep and privacy policy

This FSG contains general information. If you have further questions after reading it please contact us.

Who we are

Walker Capital is a financial services firm that operates a network of Advisers and Authorised Financial Service Providers located around the country specialising in a range of financial services, including but not limited to financial planning, wealth management, funds management, research and general advice and dealing services.

Walker Capital is responsible for the financial services provided to you by us, your Adviser and/ or the Authorised Financial Services Provider and as such acts on its own behalf.

If you decide to utilise the services provided by Walker Capital and its network of Advisers, you will receive this FSG and the Adviser Schedule. The Adviser Schedule forms part of this FSG and provides details of who your Adviser is and how you can contact them.

Not Independent

Walker Capital, Ellerfield Financial Planning and its Advisers are not independent, impartial or unbiased because they may have an association or relationship with issuers of financial products that may influence the services we provide to you. They may also receive commissions on life insurance products we recommend to our clients.

Other Disclosure Documents we may give you

You may receive other documents in addition to this FSG when your Adviser provides you with personal financial advice or recommends a financial product.

Statement of Advice

Any advice that you receive from your Adviser which takes your personal objectives, financial situation and needs into account, will be presented to you in writing in your Statement of Advice (SoA), also known as your financial plan. The SoA is an important document as it sets out what your Adviser is recommending and why it is suitable and appropriate for you. It will contain enough detail for you to make an informed decision about whether to act on the advice and will outline:

- Your Adviser's recommendations and the basis on which they are given.
- The costs of the advice and information about fees, commissions or other benefits that we, your Adviser or a related party may receive.
- Details of any relationships or associations that we or your Adviser may have with product providers or related parties.

Record of Advice

If your Adviser provides you with further personal advice, you may receive a Record of Advice (RoA) on the condition that your circumstances and the basis of advice have not changed significantly since the initial advice was received from your Adviser. You may request a copy of the advice records that we keep. Any request must be made, either verbally or in writing, within seven (7) years (or as prescribed by law) of the provision of the further personal advice, and should be directed to your Adviser.

Product Disclosure Statement

Where we make a recommendation on a product (other than securities listed on the ASX), we will provide a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which will assist you in deciding whether to acquire the financial product. The PDS contains important information about the product features, benefits, risks and fees associated with that product. The PDS should be read carefully to enable you to make an informed decision about whether to utilise the product.

Financial Services we are authorised to provide

Walker Capital is authorised under its AFSL to provide you with an extensive range of financial services to retail and wholesale clients including but not limited to provide advice and deal in the following classes of financial products:

- deposit and payment products limited to
 - basic deposit products;
 - deposit products other than basic deposit products;
- government debentures, stocks or bonds;
- life products including:
 - investment life insurance products;
 - life risk insurance products;
- interests in managed investment schemes including investor directed portfolio services;
- interests in managed investment schemes limited to MDA Services;
- retirement savings accounts;
- securities;
- standard margin lending facility; and
- superannuation.

About your Adviser

Advisers are authorised by Walker Capital to provide financial product advice in relation to, and deal in, certain financial products and services. Walker Capital will be responsible for any financial services that your Adviser is authorised to provide to you.

The Adviser Schedule contains important information about your Adviser including what advice they can provide, what relationships and associations they maintain as well as details of the advice fees you may pay and how they get paid for providing you with advice.

Nature of Advice and our Responsibilities

Walker Capital and its network of Advisers and Authorised Financial Service Providers may provide personal advice and/ or general advice regarding financial products and services that can be dealt through us. Personal advice is advice that takes into account one or more of your objectives, financial situation and needs ("your Personal Circumstances"). You should immediately notify your Adviser if your Personal Circumstances change. Each time you receive any personal advice, you will be asked to confirm whether your Personal Circumstances have changed. Your Adviser can only make recommendations based on the information provided by you. Without all the necessary information, the advice given may not be appropriate for your Personal Circumstances.

Before taking any action to acquire any of the financial products or services mentioned in this FSG you should consider whether the product or service is appropriate having regard to your Personal Circumstances. You should also refer to the relevant PDS and ensure that you understand the risks associated with those financial products and services.

It should be noted that if you open an account with us you may be requested to provide some information relating to your financial circumstances and risk profile. This information is collected so that we can:

- receive some reassurance that you will be able to finance any trading and/ or investment in recommended products that you enter into and that your attitude to risk is comparable to that of the financial products you intend to trade; and
- identify who you are as required by the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AMLCTF Act 2006).

By collecting this information it does not mean that Walker Capital or any of its Adviser will or have provided personal advice to you.

How to instruct us?

We will accept instructions via telephone, email or website enquiry or portal.

You must check and confirm with us that instructions sent via email, have in fact been received by us.

You must review any confirmation or statement we send to you immediately upon receipt to ensure its accuracy and report any discrepancies to us.

How do we get paid?

The fees charged for our advice and services will be agreed between you and us and may be based on:

- an agreed dollar amount;
- an hourly rate; and/or
- a percentage-based fee.

The fees will either be invoiced directly to you or deducted from your account provided that you give your written consent.

Our advice fees may include charges for the following advice services:

- Initial or additional advice fee - The initial or additional advice fee covers the cost of researching and preparing and presenting the advice provided in the SOA.
- Implementation fee - The implementation fee covers the cost of implementing the advice contained in the SOA.
- Ongoing advice fee or Service Review advice fee – The ongoing advice fee or service review advice fee covers the cost to review the strategies and the products recommended in your SOA. Regular reviews help you take advantage of opportunities as they become available.
- Insurance Commissions - Please note that for services in relation to insurance products, commissions may be paid by the product provider as follows:
 - Initial commission - a percentage of the value of your investment contributions, loan balance or insurance premiums; and
 - Ongoing commission - a percentage of the value of your investment balance, outstanding loan amount or premiums, usually calculated at the end of each month in which you hold the investment or loan, or on renewal of insurance products.
- Advisory and Dealing Services - Walker Capital (through the Third Party Service Provider) will arrange, as authorised by you, for brokerage, commission or transaction fees (ie. in the form of a spread mark-up or a rebate on the spread margin) to be debited from your account when a transaction has been completed in consideration for services rendered. The amount of commission can differ greatly depending on the services provided (ie. ranging from execution only services to advisory and dealing services). Generally, the commission may be charged on a per trade basis or on a cash under management basis.

Full details of brokerage, commission or transaction fees (ie. in the form of a spread mark-up or a rebate on the spread margin) payable by you is outlined in the Client Agreement entered into between the Third Party Service Provider and you.

For more information on the services provided and fees charged by your Adviser, please see Private Wealth Management Program Fee Schedule attached to this FSG and available upon request.

Specific details of our services and the fees, brokerage, commission or transaction fees payable by you will be outlined in the SOA issued to you or the Client Agreement entered into between either the Third Party Service Provider and you or between Walker Capital and you.

Other benefits

Referral fees

You may have been referred to us by a service provider which may receive financial or non-financial benefits from us, details of which will be disclosed in the SOA we give to you.

With your permission, we may refer your business to a service provider which may pay us financial or non-financial benefits, details of which will be disclosed in the SOA we give to you.

Please note that referral fees will only be paid to a service provider by us or received by us from a service provider if you have authorised such payments or receipts in writing by signing the Authority to Proceed included in your SOA or the Client Agreement entered between Walker Capital and you or such other similar document.

Remuneration of employees, directors and representatives

Our directors, employees, representatives and authorised representatives may in turn be remunerated on a commission basis for the services provided to you. Their remuneration is included in the commissions and fees discussed above and where relevant disclosed in your SOA or the Client Agreement entered between Walker Capital and you or such other similar document.

Conflicts of interest and associations

Conflicts of interest may occur from time to time. Walker Capital or your Adviser will advise you of any material interest that could reasonably be expected to influence our recommendation of a financial product to you, either verbally or within an SOA, SOAA or ROA.

However, you should be aware that:

- Walker Capital's client advisers are remunerated wholly or in part on a share of brokerage or commission basis
- if you have been referred to us by a third party, that person may receive a share of brokerage charged to you
- Walker Capital, its directors and representatives (including authorised representatives) may have material interests in the shares of companies that we have provided advice on from time to time.

Walker Capital has an association with a number of third party service providers that provide execution and clearing services to clients. If Walker Capital has referred or introduced you to a third party service provider it may receive a share of the fees, brokerage or commission charged to you.

These Conflicts of Interest and Associations in no way influence the provision of financial services to you by Walker Capital, your Adviser or an Authorised Financial Service Provider.

Complaints resolution

If you wish to make a complaint, you can contact the Complaints Officer (Mr Michael Walker) on (02) 8076 2210 or by email on admin@walkercapital.com.au. Walker Capital has a formal client complaint resolution procedure. All complaints are reviewed and investigated by our Complaints Officer. If you make a complaint, our first response will be to contact you to discuss the complaint and to register a formal record of such complaint. We will endeavour to resolve your complaint quickly and fairly.

If, despite our best efforts, you believe your complaint has not been satisfactorily dealt with, we offer clients the use of an independent industry arbiter, namely, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). Walker Capital has agreed not to contest a final resolution from AFCA.

AFCA's contact details are:

Address: GPO Box 3
Melbourne VIC 3001

Phone (toll free): 1800 931 678

Email: info@afca.org.au

Private Wealth Management Program Fee Schedule

This Schedule forms part of the Financial Services Guide (FSG) issued by Walker Capital Private Wealth Pty Limited (ACN 161 363 097, AFSL No. 436859) dated 1 February 2023.

Fees are calculated based on the level of service needed and the complexity of the advice given, to provide value to you. All fees and commissions are inclusive of GST and the fees detailed below are indicative only. The actual fee you will be charged will be set out in your SOA and/ or the Client Agreement.

Initial consultation	The Initial Consultation may incur a minimum hourly fee of $250.

Engagement Appointment	The Engagement Appointment includes the completion of a Fact Find and has a minimum cost of $880.00 (GST inclusive) for a 2 to 3 hour data collection appointment with an adviser. This amount may vary depending on certain circumstances.

Strategy Paper and Presentation	If you elect to pay us a fee for a Strategy Paper and presentation, a cost from $2,200.00 based on the complexity of the strategy will apply.

Statement / Record of Advice - Preparation and Implementation	The Statement / Record of Advice Preparation Fee has a minimum cost of $550.00. This amount may vary depending on the complexity of the Statement of Advice. For example, complex advice that contains multiple goals, scenarios, strategies and/or tax structures including but not limited to; self-managed superannuation funds, family trust and companies, are likely to be charged more than the minimum. Less complex advice that addresses limited goals, strategies and tax structures are likely to be charged closer to the minimum. The Implementation fee has a minimum cost of $550.00 and will depend on the complexity of the investment portfolio and advice areas and strategies. Fees may be paid directly by you via direct debit from your nominated bank account, or from your nominated investment product/s. You will be asked and required to authorise this type of payment in writing. Additional Investments to an Existing Product: The above advice preparation and implementation fees may apply to additional investments to existing products and will be charged in a similar fashion to fees charged to new products. Commissions are collected through the product provider and are not a direct cost to you. Borrowed funds – if we recommend you acquire investments using borrowed funds then your implementation fee will be from a minimum of $550.00. The above fees may be subject to CPI increases.

Fixed Term Advice and Services Agreements

You can elect to enter into a 12 month Fixed Term Advice and Services Agreement (FTAA) as part of your financial planning strategy so you can receive advice services such as a meeting to review your plan. Details of the services will be set out in your 12 month Fixed Term Advice and Services Agreement.

The minimum FTAA fee is $281.25 per month. The fee applied will be commensurate to the level of service needed and the complexity of the advice provided and will be outlined and agreed with you in the Agreement. Complex advice requirements can include the use of multiple advice areas and strategies, trusts and ownership structures, overseas assets or incomes, executive options or multiple investment entities. The frequency of the review will also impact on the fee charged.

The fees may be paid directly by you via direct debit from your nominated bank account, or as a monthly deduction from your investment administration service either as a fixed dollar amount and/or an account based percentage (%) fee. You will be asked and required to authorise this type of payment in writing.

Borrowed funds – if we recommend you acquire investments using borrowed funds then your annual fee will be from a minimum of $550.00.

Ad hoc advice

Where you do not wish to participate in a 12 month Fixed Term Advice and Services Agreement (FTAA) but require regular advice on an ad hoc basis, a minimum hourly fee of $250.00 will apply.

Equity Loans

The relevant product issuer will pay an ongoing commission between 0% and 0.88% of the outstanding loan balance. Commissions are paid to us by the product provider and are not a direct cost to you.

Execution only service

Where we provide a financial service to facilitate buying or selling of a specific financial product as instructed by you, a one-off minimum fee from $330.00 may apply.

Scheduled Portfolio Review

Reviews will be provided as detailed in your Fixed Term Advice and Services Agreement.

Insurance products

Where we arrange a life insurance product for you, the relevant insurer will pay an initial commission to us. The commission is calculated as a percentage of the premium paid (and may include health, occupational, frequency and modal loadings and policy fees, but excludes stamp duty).

Annual commission will also be paid when you renew your policy each year.

The rates of initial and ongoing commission will depend on the date the policy is issued and are set out in the table below:

Date policy is issued	Initial Commission (% of annual policy cost including GST)	Ongoing Commission (% of annual policy cost including GST)
Before 1 January 2018 or before 1 April 2018 (where the application was received before 1/1/18)	up to 130%	up to 33%
From 1 January 2018	up to 88%	up to 33%
From 1 January 2019	up to 77%	up to 33%
From 1 January 2020	up to 66%	up to 22%

We may receive commission at pre 1 January 2018 rates if:

- you increase your cover, add new cover or otherwise amend a policy purchased by you before 1 January 2018; and
- that policy amendment results in commission receivable by us, and
- that policy amendment is eligible for pre-1 January 2018 commission rates.

Example (all figures include GST):

You purchase the policy for $1000 on 1 December 2019. We may receive an initial commission of up to $770 ($1000 x 77%) in the first year and ongoing commissions of $330 per annum ($1000 x 33%) for as long as you continue to hold the policy.

If you increase your cover on 1 July 2020 for a cost of $500, we may receive an initial commission of up to $330 ($500 x 66%). The ongoing commissions on the additional cover may be up to $165 ($500 x 33%). This is in addition to the ongoing commissions of $330 per annum when the policy was purchased. Total ongoing commissions payable to us may be up to $495 ($1500 x 33%).

Please note that the initial and ongoing commissions on life insurance products are paid to us by the product provider and are not an additional cost to you.

PRIVACY POLICY

Walker Capital Private Wealth Pty Limited (Walker Capital) recognises the importance of your privacy, and that you have a right to control how your personal information is collected and used. We know that providing personal information is an act of trust and we take that seriously. Unless you directly give us consent to do otherwise, Walker Capital will only collect and use your personal information as set out below.

Walker Capital abides by the Australian Privacy Principles, which provide a scheme in relation to the collection, disclosure, use and storage of personal information.

Walker Capital ensures to the extent possible that its agents and service providers are aware of its and their respective obligations under the Privacy Act.

Collection of Personal Information

Personal information is information or opinion from which an individual's identity may be ascertained. Walker Capital collects personal information from its clients as part of the account opening process and enquiry forms.

The nature of personal information collected by Walker Capital generally comprises an individual's personal and financial information, including address, phone, fax, e-mail, income statement, financial goals and objectives and risk profile. Such personal information is collected for the purposes of providing financial services and products to you. Failure to provide personal information may expose you to high risks in respect of the recommendations provided and may affect the adequacy or appropriateness of the advice we give you.

If you choose to not provide your personal information when requested, we may not be able to provide the financial services that you have requested.

In some cases, where it makes sense and is lawful, you can interact with us anonymously or by using a pseudonym (an alias). This will generally be permitted when you are viewing our website and prior to registering your interest to open an account.

We usually collect personal information directly from you although sometimes we may use agents or service providers to do this for us. We may also acquire lists from other sources, both from other companies and from other public documents.

We do not collect personal information unless it is necessary for us to have this information when providing financial services and products to you. On occasion, some of this personal information may be sensitive and we will only collect it with your consent or when required to by law.

The management of Walker Capital is committed to ensuring that all personal information collected from its clients is afforded an appropriate level of privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act and the Australian Privacy Principles, by which Walker Capital is bound.

Collection of Sensitive Information

We will not use any personal identifiers issued by a government agency (eg. Tax file number or Medicare number) as an identifier in our records or systems. Should legislation require us to ask you to provide your tax file number, we will only use that number for the purposes permitted by legislation and not as a general means of identifying you.

Unsolicited Personal Information

Unsolicited personal information is personal information about an individual that has been unintentionally received. This is an uncommon occurrence for Walker Capital, but when it does happen, we will protect your personal information with the same rigour as we treat personal information that we intended to collect. If we could not have collected this information through our normal processes, we will de-identify that information as soon as we can.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

We will only use or disclose Personal Information collected by us for the purposes for which it was provided or secondary related purposes in circumstances where you would reasonably expect such use or disclosure; or where you have consented to such disclosure. The disclosure of sensitive information collected by Walker Capital is prohibited under all circumstances.

We may disclose your information to our service providers and contractors from time to time to help us provide and market our financial services and products to you. If we do this we generally require these parties to protect your information in the same way we do.

In some cases we may need to disclose your personal information outside Australia. If we believe that the overseas third party is not subject to privacy obligations equivalent to those which apply to us we will seek your consent to disclose the information, except where the Australian Privacy Principles do not require us to do so.

We are also obliged pursuant to the Corporations Act to maintain certain transaction records and make those records available for inspection by either a relevant regulator (eg. Australian Securities and Investments Commission).

We will not use or disclose your personal information for any other purposes without first obtaining your express or implied consent. We may however be required to disclose your personal information without your consent if the disclosure is:

- required or authorised by law;
- we believe it is necessary to provide you with a service which you have requested;
- required in order to investigate an unlawful activity;
- required by an enforcement body for investigative activities; or
- the assets and operations of the business are transferred to another party as a going concern.

Security of Personal Information

We strive to ensure the security, integrity and privacy of personal information we hold in relation to our clients. We use a variety of physical and electronic security measures including restricting physical access to our offices and firewalls and secure databases to keep personal information secure from misuse, loss or unauthorised use or disclosure. Some of these steps include:

- Physical access controls to our premises;
- Paper files are stored in lockable cabinets;
- Computer and network security including password and other electronic protection;
- Our employees are obliged to respect the confidentiality of personal information we hold; and
- Training of staff on information handling processes.

We only retain information that is necessary and relevant to our operations. We retain most information relating to you for at least seven years in order to meet legal and business requirements. Once information is no longer required, we arrange for it to be destroyed in a secure manner.

Access to personal information

You have a right to access most personal information we hold about you and if we deny access in some circumstances we will tell you why. A reasonable charge may apply to gain access to the information. You will be advised of any charges that may apply when you make a written request.

To request access, please contact either your advisor or our privacy officer as set out at the end of this document. You may be required to provide suitable identification to enable us to protect the security and privacy of your personal information.

Changing or deleting your Personal Information

We endeavour to ensure that information we hold about you is accurate, complete and up-to-date whenever we collect, use or disclose it. If you establish that information we hold about you is not accurate, complete or up to date, then we will take reasonable steps to correct the information. It is however important that you advise us immediately of any changes to your personal and financial information.

Cookies

Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to your computer's hard disk for record keeping purposes. Most web browsers are set to accept cookies. Cookies in and of themselves do not personally identify users, although they do identify a user's browser. Cookies are useful to determine overall traffic patterns through our website.

If you do not wish to receive any cookies you may set your browser to refuse cookies. This may mean you will not be able to take full advantage of our website.

Direct Marketing

We may use your personal details to provide you with information about financial services and products which may be of interest to you.

If we send you any information about financial services or products, or you do not want us to disclose your personal information to any other organisation in this context (including related bodies corporate) you can opt out by contacting your advisor or our Privacy Officer.

Online Links to Third Party and Co-Branded Sites

We may provide links to websites outside of our service. These linked sites are not under our control Walker Capital, and we are not responsible for the conduct of companies linked to our website. Before disclosing your personal information on any other website, we advise you to examine the Terms and Conditions of those websites.

Future changes

We review our Privacy Policy periodically and reserve the right to change it at any time. We will notify you of any changes by posting an updated version of the policy on our website.
